Keeping the faith

Chaired by

Lord Hunt of Kings Heath,

Labour Peer and former Health Minister

* What

A discussion-based seminar that will explore expectations of the NHS now and in the future and, with expert insight from NHS leaders, health strategists, opinion leaders and academics, assess the current mood and spirit within the Service and how we can keep faith with its founding ideals

Delegates will receive a round-up report that will capture the salient points of the seminar

* Focus

- Sustaining service provision across the NHS
- Enhancing access to treatment
- Improving population health
- Investing in medicines
- Vitalising and widening choice
- Educating and supporting patients
- Expanding the range of stakeholders involved in the design and delivery of healthcare
- Supporting the development of workforce improvements that increase patients' access to services

* Why

"The NHS will last as long as there are folk with the faith to fight for it"

NYE Bevan: founder of the NHS.

The NHS and its many stakeholders are unified in an enterprise that makes people's lives better. It is a unique collaboration of individuals and organisations acting as custodians of one of our greatest national achievements and agents of its continuing success.

After celebrating the 75th anniversary of the NHS in 2023, its Founder's words are just as true now as they were in 1948.

This is your opportunity to steer the course of sustainability in the NHS. The seminar focus-areas and the networking session will provide the ideal forum for exchanging ideas and getting actionable insights from the expert panel, which you can build into your strategies, plans and approaches.
